

*I do realize
no thought,
no idea,
no concept at all,
can hold a candle
to the brilliant genius
of nature and
its striking attention
to detail.*

*Still, my mind does
struggle to compete—
and creates the most dazzling and dramatic stories of personal agony and ecstasy.*

But if it's ok, I think I'd rather just sit still now—and be stunned into graceful silence by the gifted virtuosity of Life.

Ragini Michaels