

I once spoke to my friend,
an old squirrel,
about the Sacraments.
He got so excited—

And ran into a hollow in his tree and came back holding some acorns,
an owl feather,
and a ribbon he had found.

And I just smiled and said,
“Yes, dear,
You understand:

Everything imparts
His grace.”

St. Francis of Assisi

